PARK AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT COMMUNITIES AGAINST TRASH HOST COMMUNITY CLEANUP AT SAMUELL GRAND PARK
SATURDAY, SEPT. 23

Volunteers Encouraged To Come Out and Join City's Anti-Litter Efforts

WHAT: "Stash Your Trash" Cleanup at Samuell Grand Park organized by the Dallas Park and Recreation Department Communities Against Trash, a grassroots anti-litter program.

WHEN: Saturday, September 23, 2006

TIME: 8 a.m. – Volunteer Registration
9 a.m. – Cleanup Begins

WHERE: Samuell Grand Park, 6200 E. Grand (Mapsco 47-E)

WHO: Cool Cat, the Park Department's anti-litter mascot will join volunteers and park employees in this cleanup.

WHY: Litter still plagues many of Dallas' 339 parks - and it's costly. Annually, the city spends nearly $2 million on litter/trash control. As a grassroots effort, Communities Against Trash encourages park users, citizens and athletic associations to take pride in their parks by putting litter in park receptacles.
