

More than 20,000 unwanted and abandoned dogs and cats were put to death in Dallas last year.
A new task force has been appointed to develop a plan to make Dallas a no-kill community.

(Photos: Jonnie England)

